Press: The video was very excellent and blessed. Thank you for your presence. The impact it had on me: I spend more time reading the Word and praying, and I am filled more with the Spirit of God. Every day, in the time I dedicate to God and knowing Him, I understand more of His identity, character, and work—that God created me and the entire world with a specific purpose, and I am filled with the bread of life, which is Jesus, and the living water, by consuming and drinking it. And I pray every day that if I find myself in a trial like Stephen, I won't be frightened by the bad behaviors of others and forgive them because they do not know what they are doing, and God is always with me. May you be healthy.

Sina:

I have gained a deep understanding and recognition of my true identity, character, and place in my spiritual journey, which led to the breaking down of walls of despair and lack of motivation in me and ultimately resulted in a purposeful life in all dimensions of my life areas.

Farahnaz:

This part of the program has made me move forward every day with the strength of the Holy Spirit, my faith is strengthened, and I find myself in divine peace. I receive profound insights from the Bible that have become practical guides in my life. I feel the presence of the Lord more truly.

Ghazal: The impact of the program on my life: God has only one way, and utilizing the experiences of those who have traveled this path ahead of us helps us avoid wasting our spiritual life in the trial and error of personal experiences. I have learned a lot from Sister Jeannine's experience regarding the divine meaning of “the river of God's presence.”

Padideh: The heart of man longs for the glory of God and to seek God. This very desire separated Adam and Eve from the presence of the Lord. How did they, in the presence of God and without any sin, fall into disobedience? Because the devil diverted their mental eyes towards a different image from the true image of life in the garden of Eden. Today, our mental eyes are also exposed to this same satanic plot unless we wash our eyes in the river of God's presence, in spirit and word, to distinguish between true life images and counterfeit images. This requires a constant walk with God.

Paris: This series of videos and teachings is truly blessed. Thank you for your efforts; may God strengthen you. Since nothing can separate us from the love of God, I prayed and asked Him to speak to me in the ways He spoke to various people in the Bible. He met me through all the ways presented in this video, and He showed me His nature and love more through nature itself. The more time I spend with God, the more I can understand His character and ways through His Holy Spirit, and I find myself giving more thanks and seeing His glory revealed even more. Wishing you health and success.

Yekta:

This video was really very helpful for me and helped me understand the ways to hear God's voice more clearly and deeply. Even though I only watched one part of this program, I didn't feel like I was missing anything or confused at all, thanks to the precise introduction of the book and related resources in the video. The explanations were very smooth and practical, making my spiritual path clearer and more accessible. This file can bless and guide not only me but anyone who watches even just this one part, preventing confusion and disorientation.

Additionally, this video taught me how to ensure I am on the right path, as I previously didn't know that recurring events could be messages from God. Now, with this teaching, I understand better how to recognize God's signs and messages, allowing me to continue my faith journey with greater confidence.

Roya: I found my reading in the Lord, and that is a true declaration; for both believers and non-believers. These days, many people are drawn to positive thinking, visualization, and such things. The foundation of all positive thinking is taken from the Bible. However, they use God's word for their own selfish gains, not for God's glory. The same word that the devil has stolen from the church, the Lord has given to me here. This leads to the growth and elevation of believers, and besides believers, there are many non-believers in the channel who I am sure are all thirsty for the truth. One thing that has been a great blessing for me is how wonderful it is to invite authors along with the books they have written in the programs. Secondly, I was greatly blessed by the phrases that were written in the credits of this video. I need to understand God's invitation in my life. Every season in my life is an invitation. I want to be a partner in the kingdom of Jesus in daily events. I dedicate myself to Jesus every day so that His presence flows in us. Partnership with Him and His presence. And every day, I sit in silence to pray and seek a deeper understanding so that I can hear God's voice... Let me share a testimony with you. The last video I was sending, someone dear to me messaged me saying they were feeling very bad and were contemplating suicide. They were not in a condition to talk at all, so I had to communicate with them through text. Glory to God, as two sentences came to my mind from the videos I had seen, which I shared with them, and they really needed...

Dreams & the Language of God

In syndication since 2017, this powerful program is still reaching and transforming millions of Muslim born Iranians!

Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it.
(1 Corinthians 12:27)

Narges: This video teaches a lot about relying on God in everything. My idea is that it would be great if we could invite those who have received this gift from God to participate in special programs related to dream interpretation and interpret dreams. Since we all have a desire to connect with God and hear from Him, this is a very good and encouraging method for believers, as God truly communicates with us through dreams. Even non-believers can hear how much God loves His children.

Parsa: This clip is primarily about dreams and dream interpretation, which reveals a theological insight that we must rely on God rather than personal teachings. In the Bible, dream interpretation is a spiritual and divine matter, not a result of human ability or power. A prominent example of this is seen in the lives of Joseph and the prophet Daniel; both clearly stated that dream interpretation comes from God, not from themselves. Faith in the Heavenly Father is the key to truly understanding dreams, as He knows the secrets and speaks to His children through dreams. In this clip, I learned that dream interpretation should be done in humility, prayer, and obedience to divine will, not based on human understanding or analysis.
